Jason/CJ...

Please distribute to all members and remind everyone of the “ALCOHOL FREE” policy of our house & property during the Fall Semester as well as the policy that Greek Row is “ALCOHOL FREE” during Panhellenic Rush, but all of the provisions listed below. I will send out an email to all members as well, but I think it would be beneficial to have this come from you all as well. It is imperative that we keep the trash picked up and comply with all of these requirements.

Chapter Presidents and Advisors,

I hope this email finds you all well and that you all have a great summer.

As you may or may not be aware, Panhellenic is hosting their recruitment week next week, August 12-17.

For the past several years it has been asked that all fraternities help create a positive atmosphere that is comfortable and enjoyable for the women going through the recruitment process. It is now being expected that you model and represent Greek Life at Georgia Southern in a positive light, that is respectable and appropriate. I would really like for each of you act like the gentlemen that you are.

With that said, the following are expected of your organization:

- Trash will be picked up
- Lewd music will not be played
- Music will be played at a reasonable level
- Members will not yell, taunt, swear, rate or communicate with potential women who are in between recruitment rounds
- If there alcohol is present on the row, the University Police will be called. They have been instructed by University Administration to handle the situation. Please note: this could mean a potential arrest and this will definitely result in a report that will be sent to the Office of Student Conduct as a Failure to Comply.

We appreciate your cooperation during this week. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to ask.

Jess
